Looking Body of Men.

DANVILLE, VA., June &-(Special.)-The seventh annual council of the Protestant Episcopal Diocese of Southern Virginia convened here in Epiphany church at 10 o'clock this morning. Bishop Alfred Magill Randolph, D. D., of Norfolk, presided. The attendance of delegates, clerical and lay, is large. About 150 gates, clerical and lay, is large. About 150 are in attendance, besides a number of visitors. The only disagreeable feature is the suffocatingly warm weather. The thereof Lynchburg; Rev. Beveriy D. Tucker, of Norfolk; Rev. J. Cleveland Hall, of Dan-ville, and other clergy. Rev. W. Q. Hulli-hen, of Staunton, delivered the council sermon from the text, Second Peter, ill., 8: "But, beloved, be not ignorant of this one thing, that one day is with the Lord as a thousand years, and a thousand years as one day." It is pronounced a thoughtful scholarly address.

thoughtful, scholarly address.
The Bishop administered holy communion after the council sermon, nearly all of the general congregation remaining through the service. ROUTINE BUSINESS.

After an intermission of twenty min-utes following the communion service, the business session proper commenced at 1 o'clock. The roll-call was followed by the announcement of the standing committees. A resolution was adopted fixing the hours of the daily sessions from 9:30 A. M. to 1 P. M. and 3 to 6 P. M., with a provisor that the order for afternoon ses-sion be suspended for to-day. The rules of order for the guidance of last year's meeting were adopted for this session of council.

Rev. J. Cleveland Hall, rector, submitted, on behalf of the vestry of Epiphany church, a resolution extending the privileges of the floor to Rev. Mr. Dame. The resolution was unantmously adopted. The report of the committee having in the report of the committee having in charge the matter of amendment to Ca-nons 7 and 14 was made the special order for 12 o'clock to-morrow. Council adjourned at 1:30 P. M. until 9:30 to-morrow morning. To-night a general service was held, at which addresses were made by several clerical delegates on the work in the diocese during the year and the outlook for the next twelve months. . COUNCIL NOTES.

Nearly all the members of the family of the late beloved rector of Epiphany. Rev. George W. Dame, D. D., are in the city. Rev. W. M. Dame, D. D., of Baltimore, Md., is the guest of Rev. J. Cleveland Hall; Rev. Nelson P. Dame, of Winchester, Va., is stopping with Mr. W. W. Waddill, a prominent Baptist layman; Rev. George W. Dame, of Baltimore, is the guest of his brother-in-law, Mr. Robert Brydon, who is also entertaining his sister-in-law, Mrs. Lucy Thompson, of Maryland, and Miss May P. Dame, of Richmond. Richmond.

Bishop Randolph is the guest of Colonel J. M. Neal. The Bishop confirmed a small class at 8:30 this morning. Two of the most popular ministers are the Lloyds-John J., of Lynchburg, and

Arthur S., of Norfolk. The former is the guest of Mrs. C. H. Cabaniss, and the latter is stopping at the rectory, with Rev. J. Cleveland Hall. The Southern Virginia Diocese is largely a country diocese. One might na-turally conclude that the personnel of the clerical body would suffer by comparison with a gathering comprising a larger would not be warranted by the appearance of the delegates in attendance who compose as distinguished-looking a body as one would wish to see.

PAYMENT OF THE CUBANS.

HABANA, June 8.-Colonel Randall, in had turned over their arms some time before to General Pedro Betancourt, the Sc. yard. Civil Governor of Matanzas. A few of them had certificates, but the majority had not. Consequently, Colonel Randall experienced difficulty, and only paid thirty-seven men, though over 300 waiting and wanting their money.

All opposition on the part of the insur-gents to receiving the gratuity from the United States ended to-day. Lieutenant-Colonel Randall, at Matanzas; Lieutenant-Colonel Rafferty, at Sagua, and Lieuten-ant-Colonel Bisbee, at Paso Real, had large crowds waiting for payment and discharge.
